

Children's Advocates' Roundtable

January 13, 2011
12:00 to 3:00 p.m.
Secretary of State's Office
Multi-Purpose Room - First Floor
1500 11th Street

Agenda:

➤ Introductions and Updates of Roundtable Members' Advocacy

This is an opportunity to share and explain Roundtable Members' current legislation and projects.

➤ Commercially Sexually Exploited Children

Kriste Draper, Children's Advocacy Institute

Barbara Loza-Murieta, facilitator of the Alameda County Sexually Exploited Minors Network

Amy Alley, Communications Director/Deputy Legislative Director for Assemblymember Sandré Swanson

Nola Brantley, Executive Director and Co-Founder of MISSSEY, Inc., a community-based organization serving sexually exploited youth

Daphne Phung, founder and Executive Director of California Against Slavery, which advocates for strengthening current human trafficking laws and increasing victim's rights

Rosario Dowling, California Against Slavery Regional Director and State Capitol Liaison

➤ State Budget 2011

Christian Griffith, Chief Consultant, Assembly Budget Committee

Cathy Senderling- McDonald, County Welfare Directors Association

Debby Jeter, Family and Children's Services for the San Francisco Human Services Agency

➤ Announcements